

New Publication on the History of the OCS

“The 130-year history of the OHIO CAVE SURVEY” is hot off the presses.

Authored by Curt Harler and published by Speece Productions and Jack Speece as part of the esteemed Spelean History Series.

It is the official history of the organization. It traces the many efforts to pinpoint, explore, and analyze Ohio's caves. It looks at several amusing and amazing events that happened as researchers worked to document Ohio's karst and conglomerate caves...like the tale of the Army deserter who hid for two years in a cave rather than face arrest. Or the government's proposed plan to put manufacturing plants inside Ohio's caves!

Get your copy from the author for $15 (please add $2 postage for mailed copies). All profits go to the Ohio Cave Survey, a 501(c)(3) organization. Contact Curt at curt@curtharler.com with your snail mail address.
